B&PW Stages Initiation Dinner Meet

An initiation dinner honoring new members was held by the Torrance Business and Professional Women's club on Monday evening April 22 in the Devonshire Room at the Plush Horse. New members honored were Lucille Blackwell, Lillian Curtis, Margaret Dean, Pearl Good, Betty Ingram, and Evaline Palmer.

Mrs. Mitzig Palmer, parliamentarian of the Hollywood B&PW chapter conducted the initiation ceremony.

The head table was decorated with lilies sprayed in pastel shades. Each new member wore a corsage of yellow irises with gawn green ribbon, the B&PW colors.

As Mrs. Palmer, who has been in B&PW for many years and has held state offices, initiated the new members she emphasized the goals and the accomplishments of the Business and Professional Women's club.

MEXICO TRIP
Mr. and Mrs. Dick Beck, 1640 Fern Ave., and Mrs. Beck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hickey of Lomita returned recently from a week's trip to Lapaz, Mexico. They flew from Tijuana. The two men enjoyed marlin fishing during their stay.

While Mr. and Mrs. Beck were away their children, Linda and Darrell, visited their other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beck of Harbor City.

LE LAKEB IVES
Directress Bernice Ruppel was in charge of the business meeting of Le Lakeb Ives; Order of the Jesterettes on April 17 in the Fort Washington room at the Fish Shanty.

Attending the meeting were Mildred Domke, Lomita; Clara Johnston, Margaret Wahl, Ingelwood; Louise Miller, Lawndale; Frances, Ethel and Phyllis Peverly, Los Angeles; Frances Weston, San Pedro; Era Prince, Rolling Hills; Syble Moffitt, Alice Ruppel, Frances Reiser, Vivian Cook of Torrance.

PEO'S NAME NEW OFFICERS

Members of the South Bay unaffiliated group of PEOs met Wednesday, April 24, at the home of Mrs. Ralph Meeker, 2133 Chelsea Rd., for a dessert luncheon.

Officers for the next three months were elected. They are Mrs. M. A. Albie, 720 Via Del Monte, chairman, and Mrs. Ted Satterfield, 404 16th St., Manhattan Beach, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. W. W. Wilkinson, Redondo Beach, chaplain; Mrs. G. C. Shields, 309 Via El Chico, Hollywood Riviera, program chairman, and Mrs. C. E. Severson, 20942 Brighton, Torrance, publicity chairman.

Hospital Volunteers Are Honored at Annual Meet

Members of the Volunteer Staff of Harbor General Hospital who have served 25 and more hours during the preceding 17 months, were honored at their first annual meeting held in the hospital auditorium, Tuesday evening, April 22. A. L. Thomas, Administrator of the hospital, was the speaker for the occasion. In his speech, Mr. Thomas expressed the hospital's deep appreciation for the outstanding work the Volunteers have done. He also spoke of the role the Volunteers will play in the new hospital.

Before a beautifully decorated table laden with pink and white flowers and candles, Mrs. Elmer McAllister, Co-Ordinator of Volunteer Services and in charge of the evenings program, presented the Community Service Pin to Mrs. Leo McMillen for her outstanding job of putting in 900 hours of Volunteer work at the hospital. The director of Nurses, Mrs. Frances Scott, awarded certificates of merit to 45 women who had put in 50 or more hours. Mrs. McAllister read the names of the 25 women on the honorable mention roll. They had served 25 to 50 hours.

Mrs. Carolyn Brinn presented specially designed Occupational Therapy badges to those women who had completed the Occupational Therapy courses. Another type of badge was given to the women who had trained while working in occupational therapy.

The chairman or presidents of the four groups which make up the adult Volunteer Staff gave reports on the programs and jobs done by their respective organizations during the past year. The four groups are The Dianas, the General Volunteers, the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Sorority and the Volunteers for Children, Inc.

PIANO PUPILS IN RECITAL

Lois Balsley, local piano teacher, presented a group of her pupils in recital last Sunday at the Torrance Methodist Church. The stage was decorated with spring flowers.

Playing selections from "Small Tunes for Small People" were: Edna Gardner, John Elliott, Paul Redaelli, Kathy Carey and Mary Helen Argueta. Folk songs of many lands were given by Marcia Lou Atchison, Vickie La Combe, Martha Simpson, Joyce Goree, Kathleen O'Connor and Beckie Gascon.

Others were "Frisky Lambs," Stephen Deering; "The Animal Fair," Raul Amavisa; "The Bear and the Mice," Floydelle Clark; "Rain Dance," "Chesapeake Chatter," Edna Martinez; "Fleecy Clouds" and "Captain Kidd," Robert Elliott; "The Old Gray Owl" and "Anchors Aweigh," Linda Mehl; "Desert Song" and "What Will Be," Robert Redaelli; "Burr's Ride," "Piccola Tarantelle," Susan Delapina; "Ave Maria" and "Castanetta," Yvonne Lye; "Caprice," Marie Calise; "March of the Dwarfs," Yvonne Tani; "Fluttering Leaves," Mary Lee Armishaw.

The program was concluded with Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in G Minor" with Ruth White at the organ and Mrs. Balsley at the piano.
